

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for one's fellow man; and,

Whereas, Buron Otto Lindbloom attended the University of South Dakota School of Medicine from 1951 to 1953, the Indiana School of Medicine from 1953-1955, completed an internship at Detroit, Michigan, from 1955-1956, and completed his Family Practice residency from 1956-1957; and,

Whereas, Dr. Lindbloom joined the Medical Associates Clinic on July 1, 1957; and,

Whereas, Dr. Lindbloom has devoted his entire working career to the health and well-being of his patients, having delivered in excess of 5,000 babies; and,

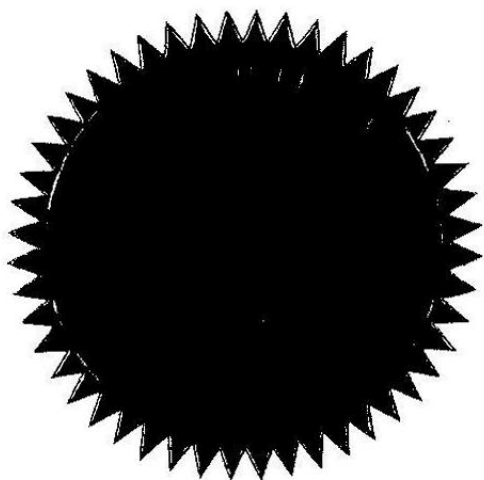

Whereas, Dr. Lindbloom has contributed to the medical education of other individuals by teaching and mentoring countless physician assistants and medical students; and,

Whereas, Prior to Dr. Lindbloom's June 30, 2003, retirement day, the staff of the Medical Associates Clinic will host a noon potluck on June 27, 2003, to honor Dr. Lindbloom for his 46 years of service to the clinic, community and surrounding area:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 30, 2003, as in South Dakota, and I join his family, colleagues, and many friends in wishing him a fulfilling and happy retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-sixth Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
